INTRODUCTION

In order to preserve the high spiritual values and spiritual heritage of our people formed over the centuries and to develop it in harmony with world culture, to widely promote national culture, and to further strengthen its place and position in the international cultural space. The concept of further development of national culture was developed in the Republic of Uzbekistan. In this Concept, the further development of national culture and art is considered as an integral and integral part of the socio-economic development of the country, based on the requirements of the Strategy of Actions on the five priority directions of the development of the Republic of Uzbekistan in 2017-2021 and the national and world advanced experiments are carried out in harmony with social and political changes in our country.

In recent years, the Ministry of Culture in our country has been reorganized based on the needs of the times, and the activities of its central and regional structures, various creative organizations and associations have been improved. Unique types of our national art have been restored, dozens of new culture and art institutions have been launched, about 15 theaters, museums and reserves have been established. In particular, the State Philharmonic of Uzbekistan, Centers of National Status Art and Performance Art, exemplary status and performance ensembles in the regions, associations of theater and film actors, state dance ensemble "Bahor" are operating effectively. In the past short period, the Uzbek National Institute of Musical Art named after Yunus Rajabi, the National Pop Art Institute named after Botir Zakirov, the Urganch branch of the State Academy of Choreography of Uzbekistan, the Republican College of Music and Art, and the Nukus Opera and Performing Arts School was established. The fact that international festivals on the arts and handicrafts of maqom and bahsikhi are regularly held in Uzbekistan serve to promote our national culture on a global scale. As a result, the ancient and unique art of the people is receiving high recognition from the world community. The fact that "Khorazm Lazgisi" and the art of Bakhchik are included in UNESCO's Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity is a clear proof of this.

Our lofty goals and objectives defined in the development strategy of the new Uzbekistan set us urgent tasks in the field of culture and art as well as in all areas. First of all, it is the most important task to further increase the principles of nationalism in our national culture and art, to turn it into a field that literally expresses the heart and soul of our country and meets the highest international standards and requirements. The population, first of all, to protect our growing children from various destructive ideas and spiritual threats, to strengthen the environment of peace and stability, mutual respect and solidarity in our society, to thousands of dedicated culture and art representatives like you. we rely on

The law "On protection of children from information harmful to their health", adopted by the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan on August 15, 2017 and approved by the Senate on August 24, 2017, is extremely important. is a historical document. The purpose of this Law No. PQ-444, signed by President Shavkat Mirziyoyev on September 8, 2017, is to regulate relations in the field of protecting children from information harmful to their health.

The decision envisages the development of the action program aimed at the radical reformation and improvement of the efficiency of the spiritual and educational work of the Republican Center of Spirituality and Enlightenment together with partner organizations, which means that the activities in this field will be carried out in a planned manner. The active involvement of the magazines "Tafakkur", "Jahon Liyatari" and "Spiritual Life", which are the press publications of the Center, in this process, acknowledges the wide participation of these publications, which meet all the modern requirements of propaganda and agitation, in covering the exciting activities in this field in the mass media. ``provides, of course. According to this decision, the structure of the Republican Center of Spirituality and Enlightenment and the society of propagandists "Marifat" consisting of well-known scientists and public figures is important for the practice in this regard.
